

Treasure Hunt

Instructions: Please review the following list of descriptors, putting an "X" by the sentences that accurately describe you.

_____ I can name four things that I learned in the e-learning.

_____ I can give an idea of a "cultural transition".

_____ I have a funny story about working with a youth on their future plans.

_____ I like to use metaphors to remember complex concepts or ideas.

_____ I can recall being 17 years old and some of the things that were important to me then.

_____ I can name three adults in my life who have been life-long connections.

_____ I can give three reasons why life-long connections are important for youth leaving care.

_____ My youth has had a transitional FTDM.

_____ I am convinced that social networking can really assist some youth.

_____ I can define the word advocate in fewer than 15 words.

_____ I can think of at least two strengths about my cultural identity which support me in being an effective volunteer.

_____ I know how to identify specific resources that a youth might need while transitioning to emancipation (e.g. housing, insurance, mental health, vocational/educational).