

How to Make the Most of Virtual Visits: Games and Activities to Play During Quarantine from CASA

I Spy

One player picks an object in the background of their screen area. Then the other player tries to guess what object they picked by asking questions to figure it out.

Once Upon a Time

One player starts the game by saying the phrase "once upon a time". After that, players take turns adding one sentence at a time to tell a fairytale story.

Guess the Animal

One player thinks of an animal and the other player guesses what that animal is. The player that guesses correctly with the fewest hints wins.

Taboo and Uno

Go to playtaboo.com to play Taboo a game where players describe the top word without using any of the words below it or go to play.unofreak.com to play Uno, a simple card game. *If you prefer, contact your CASA supervisor about getting the actual games.

Access Zoom Whiteboard

- 1) Click Share Screen on Zoom
- 2) Click Whiteboard
- 3) Click Share
- 4) Show and hide annotation tools by pressing the Whiteboard option
- 5) Create new pages by using page controls in the bottom-right corner
- 6) When you are done, click Stop Share

Pictionary

Either use a large piece of paper you can prop up for the camera or use the Zoom Whiteboard feature. For this game, one player draws a picture and the other player guesses what it is.

Name, Place, Animal, or Thing

Pick any letter or start with "A" and the first person to type in the Zoom Chat a person, place, animal and thing with that letter gets a point. If you are not using Zoom, say the word out loud instead. Decide ahead how many points are needed to win this game.

Guess the Sound

One player thinks of an animal and makes the sound that the animal makes. The other player guesses what animal makes that sound.

Freeze Dance

Play a song and have both players dance, the sillier the better! But, when one player pauses the music both players must freeze and stop dancing till the music starts again.

Paper Airplane

Make a paper airplane and practice throwing it. For directions on how to fold paper airplanes, go to www.foldnfly.com

Charades

The player chooses a book title, famous person, character, movie, or song. Then the player acts out the item they picked without using words. The person who correctly identifies with the least amount of guesses wins

Tic-Tac-Toe

Using the Whiteboard feature on Zoom, play tic-tac-toe. Alternate who is "X" and who is "O".

Simon Says

One player gives orders in the format of "Simon says.." followed by actions such as "touch your nose" or "clap twice". Be careful! If the statement does not start with "Simon says" then the other player does not do it.

Word Man!

Each player takes a turn guessing a letter to try to figure out what a word or phrase is. With each incorrect guess, a part of the person's body is drawn: head, body, arms, and then legs. Players need to guess the word before the whole person is drawn. To do this on Zoom, use the whiteboard tools. Or each player can hold up paper for the other player to see.

Fortune Teller

Fold a paper fortune teller, to make predictions about the future. For directions, go to <https://www.instructables.com/How-to-Make-Paper-Fortune-Tellers/>

I'm Going on a Picnic

The first person start the game by saying "I'm going on a picnic and I'm taking..." followed by a word beginning with the letter "A". The second person repeats the intro, the word starting with "A" and adds a word beginning with "B". The game continues until a player forgets the previous words.
